November 9, 2001. Greensboro, NC. Action Greensboro announces the Center City Task Force will make its recommendations public at a meeting to be held:

- ▲ Monday, November 12, 5:30 – 7:30 p.m. in the Southern Crescent Ballroom of the Downtown Marriott. A light supper will be served at no cost.

The Center City Task Force is co-chaired by Dennis Quaintance, President of Quaintance-Weaver Hotels & Restaurants, Shirley Frye, Vice President for Community Relations with WFMY – 2 and Mike Bumpass, President of the Greater Greensboro Merchant's Association. Action Greensboro hired Cooper Carry, an Atlanta-based architectural firm to develop a Master Plan for downtown revitalization.

Rich Flierl, principal with Cooper Carry and its Center for Connective Architecture, heads the Greensboro plan and will present it on Monday evening.

The meeting is open to the public. If anyone wishes to attend they should call Nathan Jameson, Assistant Director of Action Greensboro, at 379-0821.
